2022-23 Research Security Outcomes Report

Project Title	Objectives	Indicators	Actual Results/Outcomes/Impacts Enhance Research Security – Planning and Implementation	Raise awareness of research security considerations and the need to safeguard research Raise capacity to identify risks and develop risk mitigation measures Develop organizational framework and supporting infrastructure to enhance research security that is incorporated into TMU's enterprise risk management framework	Development of plan to incorporate research security into TMU's existing enterprise risk management framework Creation of Director Research Security job description Recruitment of Director Research Security Creation and delivery of training workshops, research security briefings / guidance issued / tools	Activities Delivered Director of Research Security hired to enhance the overall resiliency of TMU and to oversee the creation and implementation of risk identification and mitigation policies and processes Research security threat landscape and regulatory policy awareness presentation and briefing delivered to the executive leadership and the SRC leaders of TMU Open source due diligence training on risk identification and mitigation provided to staff within the OVPRI Tailored research security risks and policy consultations provided to faculty members and researchers to inform decision making regarding international research collaboration and partnerships Engagements with both provincial and federal government stakeholders including the Research Security Centre at Public Safety Canada, Global Affairs Canada and Ministry of Colleges and Universities. Outcomes TMU SRC enterprise and broader community is well informed of new funding requirements and the drivers behind them (basic threat landscape and risks awareness) Faculties and researchers are well equipped to understand and identify research security risks (including cyber) and develop appropriate mitigation strategies.

			Staff is trained and supported on how to conduct due diligence and draft mitigation plans
			Enhanced mutual understanding of policy implementation impacts and challenges