

Ted Rogers School of Management Renewable Undergraduate Entrance Awards

Award Highlights

The Ted Rogers School of Management Renewable Undergraduate Entrance Award is available to applicants that will commence their full-time undergraduate studies at the Ted Rogers School of Management in the coming Fall semester. A total of 4 renewable awards are disbursed annually to first-year students. The total, including renewed scholarships to upper year students, is 16 annually. The actual amount of the award will be dependent upon the income generated by the endowment throughout the previous year, as well as Ryerson University's policy on endowment disbursement rates.

- $10,000 each
- A total of 4 renewable awards available annually

Who Can Apply?

A student will:

- Be a resident of Ontario.
- Be Canadian citizen, landed immigrant or protected person who has been issued a Protected Persons Status Document (PPSD).
- Have officially accepted offer to attend Ryerson entering the 1st year of the Business Management, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Business Technology Management or Retail Management program.
- Direct entry from high school, with a minimum 85% average in their final year of high school.
- Demonstrate financial need as determined by the university through submission of a budget form.

Application Process

Students may submit an application, or be nominated by faculty or a member of the community.

Interested students should submit in writing to the Student Financial Assistance Office, Room POD-59, Ryerson University, 350 Victoria Street, Toronto, ON, M5B 2K3:
