4. REPORT FROM THE PRESIDENT

M. Lachemi introduced K. Mehta as the new Vice-President, University Advancement and Alumni Relations; recognized S. Liss, the research team, and faculty members for the University's placement among the top five (5) comprehensive research universities in three (3) categories; and highlighted the School of Hospitality and Tourism Management's notable third place standing in Canada within the annual Global Ranking of Academic Subjects published by ShanghaiRanking Consultancy.

M. Lachemi shared updates on the University's public response to a letter from five (5) members of Parliament regarding the impact of the conflict in the Middle East and a working group convened by the Office of the Vice-President, Equity and Community Inclusion that will collaborate with other units throughout the University to plan, organize and host initiatives to respond to community needs.

M. Lachemi discussed the work of the Lincoln Alexander School of Law's ("LASL") Student Initiative Working Group; how co-authors R. Khouri and J. Wilkinson of The Wall Between will facilitate meetings with the LASL's Student Initiative Working Group to help build understanding and find common ground and shared values; and the collaborative support that will be provided by A. Elghawaby, Canada's Special Representative on Combatting Islamophobia, and D. Lyons, Canada's Special Envoy on Preserving Holocaust Remembrance and Combatting Antisemitism.
