Annual Symposium on Professional Nursing Advancement

Tuesday, November 29, 2011

9:00am-2:30pm

Daphne Cockwell School of Nursing, POD 463

The Master of Nursing Program at the Daphne Cockwell School of Nursing, Ryerson University invites you to the Annual Symposium on Professional Nursing Advancement. The symposium provides an opportunity for students of MN8904 Seminar in Professional Nursing Advancement to present orally and through poster format on topics related to the role of graduate prepared nurses in advancing the profession of nursing.

The symposium includes podium presentations (25-minutes in length) and poster presentations (5-minute presentation followed by question period) focused on advanced nursing roles in clinical practice, teaching, research, policy, and leadership. Contributions to the conference relate to one of the two themes:

- Promoting change and innovation
- Contributions to knowledge development

Please see the attached Symposium Schedule for topics and presenters.

Please join us as we celebrate students' accomplishments!

We look forward to your participation and your support of our MN Students!
