Dennis Mock Student Leadership Awards

The Dennis Mock Student Leadership Awards were created to recognize graduating students for their leadership and outstanding contributions to the life of Ryerson through extracurricular involvement.

The Awards were established in honour of former Vice President, Academic, Dennis Mock, who, in his 28 years at Ryerson, demonstrated a record of commitment to post-secondary education that has few equals. Dr. Mock played a central role in steering Ryerson through its most significant period of evolution, and earned a reputation throughout the university for leadership, dedication, and compassion.

These qualities are embodied in the students who are chosen to receive this award - students committed to making a difference.
