Message from the Vice Provost, Students

It is my hope that you will make use of these services during your time at Ryerson. There are many people here who are committed to helping you be successful. Keep this brochure handy - you never know when you will want to contact one of the offices listed to ask a question, attend a workshop or event, ask for help in solving a crisis, volunteer to work with other students, or enjoy the programs, services and facilities that are offered to all Ryerson students. Make a commitment to yourself to get all you can out of your university experience. This is a community of thousands of faculty, staff, and students who all have a role to play in its vibrancy and unique energy. Get involved and make Ryerson your home!
