

Ryerson University and
The School of Criminal Justice

present

Roundtable "Human Trafficking from Eastern Europe: North America and EU
Responses"

A Presentation and Panel Discussion

January 25, 2007

Thursday

2:30 P.M. – 7:30 P.M.

Vivian and David Campbell Conference Facility

Munk Centre for International Studies

1 Devonshire Place

2:30-5 pm Panel I. Human Trafficking: Focus on Europe

- Louise Shelley (Director, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center)
- Khalid Koser (University College London, Global Commission on International Migration)
- Alexandra V. Orlova (School of Criminal Justice, Ryerson University)
- Halyna Zalucky (Help Us Help The Children: Anti-Trafficking Initiative) and their Ukrainian counterpart
- Chair: Peter Solomon Jr., Department of Political Science, University of Toronto

5-5:30 pm break with refreshments

5:30- 7:30 pm Panel II. Human Trafficking: Canadian Responses

- Audrey Macklin (Faculty of Law, University of Toronto)
- Criminal, Security and Treaty Law Division in DFAIT)
- Irena Soltys (Stop The Trafficking Coalition, Help Us Help The Children: Anti-Trafficking Initiative)
- Chair: Randall Hansen, Canada Research Chair in Immigration & Governance

Registration: <http://www.utoronto.ca/ceres/>

School of Criminal Justice

Sponsors:

-  EUCE - European Union Center of Excellence
-  The Petro Jacyk Program for the Study of Ukraine
-  JIGES - Joint Initiative in German and European Studies
-  CERES – Centre for European, Russian, and Eurasian Studies