Out from Under: Disability, History and Things to Remember

"It's a small exhibition, but it packs a punch. Out from Under ... exposes a part of Canadian history that's been locked away in trunks, silenced by stigma and held in people's hearts." — Toronto Star

"... a genre-bending exploration of Canada's vast unknown past of disability successes and failures."
— NOW Daily

"... a proud history of resistance and survival" — ROM Magazine

Tuesday, March 9 to Sunday, March 21, 2010

Open daily

Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm

Saturday through Sunday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

UBC Robson Square, 800 Robson Street, Vancouver

Accessibility features: ASL, Braille, Audio Description, Plain Language Audio Tours and Artifact Touch Stations.
