

Terence Grier Entrance Scholarship

Value: Full tuition for first-year only (not renewable) | One Scholarship Available
Deadline to Apply: March 1, 2019

The Award

The Terence Grier Entrance Scholarship honours the achievements of Ryerson's President, from 1988-1995, in particular his leadership through a period of profound change at Ryerson, culminating in the acquisition of university status at the institution.

Who's Eligible

- Must be a current full-time (Fall 2018/Winter 2019) secondary school student in Canada.
- Must be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident.
- Must have achieved high school matriculation.
- Must be pursuing post-secondary studies for the first time.
- Must be seeking admission into first year undergraduate study in a full-time degree program at Ryerson University.

Criteria

- Minimum final academic average of 85% in 6 Ontario Grade 12 U/M or equivalent credits from a high school within Canada.
- Successful demonstration of exceptional aptitude for or interest in the chosen field of study at Ryerson (e.g., a journalism applicant who has already achieved an outstanding record on a high school newspaper; a theatre applicant who has already starred in school or amateur productions; a business applicant who has already demonstrated entrepreneurial skills; and other comparable achievements in whatever field of study the applicant may choose to follow).

Application Process

Electronic submission of an original application package, which must include:

- Completed application form for the Terence Grier Entrance Scholarship.
- Personal letter not to exceed 750 words, outlining your specific area of aptitude, in relation to the field of study, and how this has been demonstrated.
- Two references from individuals who can best evaluate the candidate:
  - An academic reference confirming the candidate's scholastic abilities.
  - Another reference supporting the candidate's exceptional aptitude in the chosen field of study.
