

Call for Expressions of Interest – Externally funded fellowships

Top-quality researchers are invited to submit an expression of interest for externally funded fellowships

The Canada Excellence Research Chair in Migration and Integration at Ryerson University invites top-quality researchers who are working in the broader area of migration and integration studies to submit an expression of interest for externally funded fellowships to be hosted by the CERC in Migration at Ryerson University in Toronto, Canada.

Interested applicants should submit an application package to cerc.migration@ryerson.ca by 9:00 AM EST May 10, 2021. The package is to include:

- short CV (2-4 pages)
- short outline of a research proposal (1-2 pages)

Your research proposal must include a clear statement of what you intend to study and show how it fits with one or more of the thematic priority areas of the CERC Migration program. The process is competitive and only a handful of applicants will be retained for further preparing of a submission to one of the schemes outlined below. Shortlisted applicants will be informed by early June 2021.

Please ensure you meet all eligibility requirements for your fellowship of choice.
