

Learning Outcomes

LO	Description
LO1	Analyze human behaviour and outcomes using quantitative economic models.
LO2	Examine how economic policies affect diverse communities.
LO3	Think critically about economic theories and their application.
LO4	Effectively communicate economic insights in diverse collaborative settings.
LO5	Develop and apply skills in conducting empirical research, including data collection, statistical analysis, and interpretation of results.
LO6	Gain insights into financial markets, including understanding the role of financial institutions, investment, and risk management.
LO7	Assess and determine the connections between economics and other disciplines, fostering interdisciplinary perspectives.
LO8	Develop and apply practical skills for the workplace, including problem-solving, teamwork, and adaptability.
LO9	Build foundational skills required to pursue additional learning opportunities such as professional designations or graduate studies.