“FOR THOSE INTERESTED IN PHOTOGRAPHY, NEW MEDIA AND FILM, THIS PROGRAM IS ONE-OF-A-KIND IN CANADA AND THE WORLD. ”

Curriculum + DocNow Festival

FULL-TIME TWO-YEAR/SIX-TERM PROGRAM

Create documentary media from political and cultural points of view

CURRICULUM

Through combined studies in documentary production and history, our curriculum prepares students to produce thesis projects that can take the form of narrative or non-narrative films, gallery-based installations, photobooks, performance-based or interactive events, and web or multi-platform documentaries.

DOCNOW FESTIVAL

With assistance from faculty, students will collaborate on a citywide festival featuring the thesis work of students in the program.

PROGRAM RESOURCES

- 24/7 access to graduate labs/equipment
- Extensive camera, sound and studio resources
- Digital editing, printing and scanning facilities
- Analogue resources

PAID OPPORTUNITIES + SCHOLARSHIPS

Apply to work as a Research Assistant or Grad Teaching Assistant. Program funding is awarded to top candidates.

Program offered at FCAD's world-renowned School of Image Arts
