Re: Proof of Receipt of honorarium/gift for Research Participants

Research participants have been given a cash honorarium/gift (or certificates) for participation in the above named study. I am unable to disclose personal information about the participants, for confidentiality reasons.

This is to declare that we have distributed cash honoraria/gifts to research participants, whose pseudonyms, first names or participant numbers (population of interest will not participate if full legal names need to be provided) are recorded in my confidential research records, along with signatures obtained to confirm receipt of funds.
