

INTERNATIONAL AND CANADIAN CHILD RIGHTS PARTNERSHIP (ICCRP)

ICCRP Ongoing Engagement

We happily welcomed the adult members of our Intergenerational Advisory Committee (IAC) in March to the 1st adult IAC meeting. We are excited to have young people recruited and join in the latter half of 2022.*

Our first joint meeting of the 4 Working Groups, 11 Case Studies and 8 Steering Committee Members was a great success! Participants heard from Case Study Team representatives about their important intergenerational, child rights and child and youth activism research projects. It was also great to hear all of the unique and innovative ideas brought to the table by each WG!

Our first-ever Partners Advisory Committee (PAC) meeting in June was very productive and sparked new and insightful discussions among many of our valued partners!

Are you interested in contributing to ICCRP research, eager to meet with international practitioners, researchers, and young people, and willing to share your thoughts and advice? Consider joining an upcoming virtual Working Group meeting today! Our four working groups are Conceptual Interconnections, Ethics, Participatory Methodologies, and Policy!

Please email vanessa.zufelt@ryerson.ca for more information.

Child & Youth Advisory Committee (CYAC)

We would like to recognize and thank our wonderful CYAC members who advised the ICCRP from 2017-2021. We had a virtual closing party in March 2022 to celebrate all their contributions and the impacts that they had on the partnership and research.

We thank them for all their great work!

Research Ethics Update

*The Intergenerational Advisory Committee (IAC) young people are being recruited following an ICCRP process of informed consent. They will be involved with the ICCRP as advisors.

We are advancing our protocol at Toronto Metropolitan University for the ICCRP Child and Youth Activism Projects in Ontario, New Brunswick, Brazil, South Africa & Scotland. Additional ethics approvals with all pertinent institutions will be pursued thereafter.

Congratulations to co-applicant Virginia Caputo from Carleton University on her successful ethics protocol for her case study, "Shaking the Movers: A Model for Exploring Intergenerational Children's Rights". We are currently pursuing TMU's ethics review. We can't wait to start this research with you!

Many more ethics protocols to come!
