

Solly Patel Memorial Entrance Award (Public Administration and Governance)

Source of Funds: Solly Patel Fund 2 (Entrance Award)

Award Value: The award is $1000 annually.

History and Purpose

The Solly Patel Memorial Entrance Award was created in 2009 to honour the memory of Solly Patel, who was a faculty member in the Department of Politics and School of Public Administration (as it then was), and served a term as the Department Chair in the 1980s. Solly Patel retired in 1996, after 29 years of dedicated and distinguished service to Ryerson, and returned to South Africa, where he died on 30 March 2006 at age 71 years. Solly Patel's sister, Khatija Patel, made the endowed award possible through a generous donation.

The award is intended to recognise the academic achievement and aptitude of one student in the Public Administration and Governance program with demonstrated financial need.

OTSS –Undergraduate Student Budget

This budget captures an individual student's educational expenses. Tuition fees are for Ryerson undergraduate courses taken September to April (8 months) while on campus. Don't include expenses while on a co-op or work term. Please complete all sections and check the appropriate boxes. Leave the amount blank in the amount field if there is nothing to report. The expense ranges in this budget may be higher or lower than actual expenses. Report actual expenses if lower than the range in the budget. Ryerson bursary funds supplement not replace the funds a student is expected to contribute to their educational costs. The expense ranges are intended to promote equality of opportunity and provide a transparent equitable method to assess unmet need. Student budgets submitted with NIL resources will NOT be considered for the bursary/award.
