Salad King International Student Awards

Sponsored by Mr. Ernest and Mrs. Linda Liu, owners of the popular Salad King Restaurant. These awards focus on recognizing international student leadership journey & success during their time at Ryerson.

Salad King On-Campus Student Leader Award

This award is given to an international student who has demonstrated strong leadership to improving the quality of student experience at Ryerson University. An on-campus student leader makes an impact as a positive role model and as a great mentor for students.

Erina Shirai

Salad King Off-Campus Community Builder Award

This award is given to an international student who has played a significant role to raise awareness about international students outside the Ryerson community. The recipient of this award has built connections between Ryerson University and either Canada or overseas to enhance the experience of international students in a meaningful way.

Muhammad Mujtaba Nanji

Salad King Excellence in Mentoring Award

This award is given to a student who has played an important role providing positive mentorship support to their fellow international students at Ryerson. The recipient of this award meaningfully assisted new students on their transition to Ryerson University and in Canada.

Melissa Salamo

Salad King Personal Development Award

This award is given to an international student who has overcome a significant challenge in their own personal life. The recipient demonstrated a significant strength to thrive and enhanced their engagement on or off campus performance.

Thuy Nguyen

Salad King Mental Health Outreach Champion Award

This award is given to an international student who has been a strong advocate to raise awareness about the mental health of international students. The student demonstrated positive initiative in de-stigmatizing and lifting the taboo upon mental health issues with international students.

Anita Wu

Dennis Mock Student Leadership Awards

The Dennis Mock Student Leadership Awards were created to recognize graduating students for their leadership and outstanding contributions to the life of Ryerson through extracurricular involvement.

The Awards were established in honour of former Vice-President, Academic, Dennis Mock, who, in his 28 years at Ryerson, demonstrated a record of commitment to post-secondary education that has few equals. Dr. Mock played a central role in steering Ryerson through a significant period of evolution, and earned a reputation throughout the university for leadership, dedication, and compassion.

These qualities are embodied in the students who are chosen to receive this award — students committed to making a difference.
