He also announced that Ryerson was honoured to have received the Helen Keller Award, which he said is a tribute to the School of Disability Studies and their "Out From Under" exhibition, and offered his congratulations to the School for representing the University so well.
The President announced that the provincial budget came down and that it was relatively good news because Ryerson's operating grant remains unchanged from last year, as opposed to a potential reduction. As a result, in order to balance Ryerson's budget, there is a reduction of 2.5%, with 1% being redistributed.
Finally, he mentioned that Ryerson's admission numbers for next year are very strong.

The Ryerson Today article, with links to the draft report and an email address for submitting comments is available at <http://www.ryerson.ca/ryersontoday/data/news/2015/05/20150506-provost-draft-report-sexual-assault-policy.html>.
