

MAYORAL DEBATE

Who will shape Toronto's future?

Thursday, March 27, 6 to 8 p.m.

George Vari Engineering and Computing Centre, Room ENG-103
245 Church Street, Ryerson University

SPEAKERS:

MAYOR ROB FORD | DAVID SOKNACKI | KAREN STINTZ | JOHN TORY

Join us as some of the 2014 Toronto mayoral candidates debate key issues facing Toronto.

The discussion will be moderated by Ralph Lean, Distinguished Counsel in Residence, and hosted by Professor Avner Levin, Chair, Law and Business, Ted Rogers School of Management.

This event is open to the Ryerson community. Please email lawcentre@ryerson.ca to register. To allow as many Ryerson community members as possible to attend, only those with a ryerson.ca email address may register before Tuesday, March 25. Registration is open to the general public after this date.

Can't make it to the event? Watch the webcast online at ryecast.ryerson.ca/trsm.

Please let us know if we need to make any accessibility accommodations to ensure your inclusion in this event.