

PrepLounge Academic License with Ryerson University

Land your dream job in consulting

Join our community and master the case interview.

Practice 130+ cases live with peers.

PrepLounge is a case interview community where candidates with similar career goals get connected, practice cases and sharpen their consulting skills. It is the first of its kind in the world. Our initial focus is on management consulting, more specifically on the case interview preparation.

Our vision is to provide a service that enables applicants to show their very best during their final case interviews at management consulting companies like McKinsey, Bain, Boston Consulting Group, etc. As a result we help to improve job-offer rates into consulting with our comprehensive training platform.

In the scope of an academic license your university helps you to break into consulting and give you the opportunity to benefit from a premium membership for PrepLounge's peer-to-peer platform throughout the academic year.

Benefits for students: Full Access to PrepLounge Premium
