

Career Futures @ Home

The Business Career Hub is pleased to announce Career Futures@Home, a program focused on preparing you for the job marketplace.

This unique, industry-based program, will provide you with various tools to allow you to enhance your technical and interpersonal skills. Participating in Bootcamps, Prep Programs, Corporate Sprints, and Industry Challenges are all part of the overall program.

To earn the digital credential you need to accumulate at least 50 points (1 hour learning = 1 point) between May 1st, 2020 to August 31, 2020

How do you earn points?

1) Utilize Business Career Hub services

- Book a 1-on-1
- Email trsmcareers@ryerson.ca to book virtual Drop-ins (Hours: Monday - Friday 10:00am - 4:00pm)
- Register for bootcamps and virtual events

Note: If you have booked an appointment, attended a bootcamp or virtual event hosted by BCH, you do not need to fill out any forms. It will automatically be updated in our system.

*If a bootcamp which you are interested in attending is full, please email trsmbootcamps@ryerson.ca a request to be added to the waitlist and provide the following details:

First + Last Name:

Student Number:

Name of Bootcamp:

Time + Date of Bootcamp:

2) Submit hours for the following eligible options:

Eligible Options	Description	Form
Workshops/Virtual Events	This form is for non-BCH workshops or virtual events hosted by TRSM student groups or organizations.	Click here
Independent Learning (LinkedIn Elearning+ Udemy)	Courses completed online through LinkedIn Learning and/ Udemy can earn you points. They must meet the criteria for TRSM professional development and/or academics.	Click here
Volunteer Hours	If you are part of a TRSM student group volunteering your time, you can receive up to 10 hours for your involvement.	Click here

If you have other questions, please email us at careerfutures@ryerson.ca