

Conducting Legal Research:

An Introductory Workshop

LAW CENTRE

RYERSON LAW RESEARCH CENTRE

RULA

Ryerson University Library & Archives

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Date: Tuesday October 25, 2011

Time: 1:00—3:00 p.m.

Location: LIB 272a, 2nd Floor Library

REGISTRATION

To register for this workshop please RSVP to the Ryerson Law Research Centre at lawcentre@ryerson.ca by Thursday October 20, 2011.

WANT TO BECOME A MORE VALUABLE RA?

Enhance your skill set by equipping yourself with the legal research basics that faculty are looking for. The Ryerson Law Research Centre and the Ryerson University Library & Archives have partnered to offer an introductory, hands-on workshop designed to provide participants with a basic understanding of the strategy and tools to conduct effective legal research.

Topics include:

- How statutes and case law are created
- Research methods for locating online material
- Locating legislation and commentary

Participants who complete the workshop will receive a Certificate of Achievement.

SPACE IS LIMITED, SO REGISTER TODAY!

RYERSON UNIVERSITY